“Today’s Bargain Wine Buys”

“Wow -- apparently I'm completely over the slight anti-Chard bias that I've carried in recent years. This trio was thoroughly enjoyable in different ways: the Kunde tasted fresh bright and crisp once I got past the charred-wood and vanilla aromas; the Merryvale offered soft and lush citrus and butterscotch flavors that cried out for leftover fried chicken; and the 2006 MacRostie Carneros Chardonnay sort of came in between those two styles with flavors that were sunshiny but not over-the-top. Grilled seafood would be an ideal mate for any of the three.”
